

I totally oppose the use of tax money to subsidize the cost of the Hartford baseball stadium. It is unconscionable that a bill is being introduced force one set of citizens to pay for other people's recreation. The state is going broke with its pension exposure and other obligations, and CT legislators are proposing throwing away more taxpayer money.

Spend your time proposing cuts to subsidies - before we too go broke.

Paul Panos